Sir: Your Committee on Enrolled Bills, to whom was referred

NINETEENTH DAY.

(Friday, February 27, 1931.)

The House met at 9:30 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by Speaker Minor.

RELATIVE TO FILING INCOME TAX REPORT.

The Speaker laid before the House and had read the following communication:

Treasury Department.

Internal Revenue Service,

Austin, Texas, February 25, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, care House of Representatives, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas.

My Dear Mr. Minor: I am writing you a general letter which you may read to the members of the House of Representatives, concerning the filing of their income tax returns for the calendar year 1930. As you doubtless know all income tax returns are due to be filed in the office of the collector on or before March 15th of the year following. Inasmuch as March 15 of this year falls on Sunday, returns will be accepted without penalty on March 16, 1931.

I know a great many of the representatives will not be able to return to their respective places of business and file their income tax returns and I will be pleased to grant any member a thirty, sixty, or ninety-day extension of time in which to file his return. Of course, the deferred installment will bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent. It will be necessary for each member to make an application for this extension. They may write, telephone or call in person and I will be pleased to grant the extension.

Of course, you understand there are two districts of collection in Texas and I am enclosing a list of the counties in the First District (Austin District) and the Second District (Dallas District), and the representatives living in the Second District should make their applications to Honorable George C. Hopkins, Collector of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Texas.

I trust this will be of some benefit to you and your associates.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

JAMES W. BASS,

JWB:ze

COMMUNICATION IN REGARD TO STORAGE OF GAME.

The Speaker laid before the House and had read the following communication:

Game, Fish and Oyster Commission,
Austin, Texas.

February 24, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker, House of Representatives, Austin, Texas.

My Dear Mr. Minor: I am enclosing herewith a communication which we have prepared after careful deliberation.

I will deem it a personal favor if you will get this communication read before the House at the earliest possible moment, so that it may be inserted in the House Journal.

Sincerely your friend,

WM. J. TUCKER,
Executive Secretary.

Austin, Texas, February 24, 1931.

Honorable Edgar E. Witt, President,
Senate; Honorable Fred H. Minor,
Speaker, House of Representatives.

Sirs: Article 909 of the Penal Code makes it unlawful for any person owning or claiming wild birds, fowls or animals or parts thereof, to place in storage or keep in storage such birds or animals for a longer period of time than ten days after the open season prescribed for the taking of such game. There is pending before the Legislature at this time a bill which proposes to rewrite Article 909, the effect of which would be to allow the keeping in storage of game animals for a longer period of time and provides safeguards which the present law on this subject does not provide. In the judgment of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, this is a good bill and should be passed.

The Commission, at its October, 1930, meeting decided to give to the members of the Legislature a banquet on the opening day of the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature, and that the meat menu of this banquet would be game lawfully taken during the open season. On account of the illness of the chairman, the banquet was postponed. The purpose of the banquet was to enable the Commission and executives of the Department to present to the members of the Legislature information of vital importance and for the public good pertaining to the protection of wild life of this State.

After the banquet was held and the above mentioned bills were introduced in the Senate and the House complaints were filed against certain executives and employes of the Game Department, who are charged with storing game after the legal period of time for holding such game in storage on the theory that such game was held by these officials in violation of Article 909 of the Penal Code, for the purpose of providing the above-mentioned banquet to the members of the Legislature.

The bill now pending, if passed, would bar prosecution of the parties named in the complaints. We request that the bill be amended so as to allow the prosecution of any charges now pending, brought under Article 909 of the Penal Code of this State.

Very respectfully yours,

WM. J. TUCKER,
Executive Secretary.

BEAL JESTER,
Assistant Executive Secretary.

C. R. RUDASILL,
Director of Fish Hatcheries.

J. E. FERGUSON,
Game and Fish Warden.
